

Michael Myers

ABOUT

Michael Myers is “Advisory Board” member and an “Outstanding Alumnus” and a scholarship graduate of the Savannah College of Art and Design. He works as a beauty and fashion photographer in New York City with the industry acknowledgment of Fairchild’s “Beauty Biz” “Noted Beauty Photographer”. His work has been featured in publications such Interview, Allure, Instyle, Glamour, Elle Girl, GQ and Estee Lauder. Since his solo exhibition “the Space Between” at Kristen Frederickson Contemporary Fine Art Gallery-NYC, Myers has immersed himself in his exploration of his non-commercial photographic work. On a recent trip to Africa with videographer Sean Sheridan, Myers collaborated with Sheridan on a book and documentary project depicting the hope and grass roots developmental programs run by Africans plagued by War, Hunger and AIDS.
